It was announced in the Spring of '85' a new major being offered.

This major is intended to make better job opportunities for MU Graduates.

A BA program in Mass Comm. has been installed, with concentrations in Public Relations, Broadcasting, and Journalism.

Grandpappy shot off all five of his toes" is a famous line from one of Gwenda Ledbetter's stories.

With Ledbetter, Jackie Torrence and Utah Phillips performed Sept. 13-15, at the fourth Annual Storytelling Festival.

Ledbetter is from Ashville, North Carolina. Torrence is from Highpoint, North Carolina and Phillips is from Spokane, Washington.

Along with telling stories other entertainment was included. Mountain tales, magical stories, ballads, songs and humor were a among the different entertainment.

THE ROAD LEADS US . . .

Approximately fifty Mansfield University students participated in commencement exercises held in Straughn Auditorium.

The December 22, graduates heard guest speaker Dr. Howard Kennedy, a psychology professor at the community College of the Finger Lakes. Dr. Kennedy spoke of campus life at Mansfield University during the fifties when he received his first degree here.

The invocation was delivered by Rev. Benjamin E. Nevin. Rev. Nevin ministered at the First Baptist Church of Mansfield.

Degrees were presented to about 100 students by President Rod Kelchner.

A 20 percent mark up on books by Mansfield University's campus bookstore was explained by a bookstore employee.

She said that some of the mark ups that are made by the bookstore are made by the publishers. Mark ups done by the bookstore are made according to the same scale used by the publishers, according the employee.

The major portion of the increase is from the high costs of labor and freight. The shipping charge for ten cartons of books was said to be "100 some dollars."

The mark up also allows for the costs of telephone calls and office supplies.

The mark up policy on used books is 25 percent. A book that costs $20 new will cost $15 used and would have been bought back for $10.

The Mansfield University Rec Center hosted an unusual athletic event.

Twenty Competitors demonstrated their jillo wrestling talents while Vice President Joseph Maresco acted as referee. Maresco, who was outfitted as the swamp thing, claims to be a "Licensed Referee on Long Island," having "officiated a lot of drunks on the subways".

The November 7, tournament demonstrated "why children are told not to play with their food".

John (J.R.) Managan filed a civil complaint in the Court of Common Pleas, claiming damages totalling $20 thousand against Professor Bernard Sabol.

The charges were the result of an incident that occurred on December 20, at Mark's Brothers Restaurant and Lounge. Sabol allegedly attacked Managan. The complaint says that Sabol ". . . made crude, vulgar remarks concerning plaintiff's (Mangan's) singing and playing.

The complaint was settled out of court in April '85'.

. . . TO CAMPUS NEWS . . .

The academic Affairs Committee has approved a proposal from the Robert Packer Hospital School of Nursing. The proposal is to begin a Bachelor of Nursing program with MU.

The outlined program would be a joint program with MU providing the general education and academic portion of the nursing program. As for the Robert Parker Hospital, they will provide other facilities providing Clinicial experience.

The Mansfield University ROTC detachment went to Fort Drum, New York for a weekend in April. This was just one of many field training exercises that trains officer candidates with combat environment. Combat stimulation is supposed to provide a useful tool in developing officer qualities. This is where the true leaders surface.

The events of the day for this weekend are as follows. The cadets left Friday April 12, and established bivouac sites when they arrived. On Saturday April 13, the cadets had a wake up call at 5 am. The cadets ate breakfast and broke camp. They then performed the duties of what soldiers would do during a war. This continued through the night. The cadets returned Sunday April 14, after the made up war ended.

Music was a hot issue during the 1984 and 1985 school year. Many new songs have hit the tops of different charts.

The LP, Purple Rain, by the Prince and the Revolution includes songs like When Doves cry”, “Let's Go Crazy”, and “I will Die for U”.

Another top LP is I can't slow down” by Lionel Richie. Being very talented, Richie masters all kinds of music. This album demonstrates these qualities in “All night Long”, “Love will find a Way”, and “Running With the Night”, with an upbeat tempo. Songs like “Hello”, and “Penny Lover” have a slow beat tempo.

As for the Pointer Sisters, they demonstrate their new wave on the Album Break Out. This album is targeted to the younger audiance than their other albums. The Pointer Sisters sing “I need You”, “Easy Persuasion” and “Telegraph Your Love”.

Other songs include: Patti Austin Straight from the Heart,; Chcka Khan, I Feel For You; Madonna, Like a Virgin; Diana Ross, Private Dancer.

Also during this year, Michael Jackson and Lionel Richie joined teams to write a song titled, “We Are the World”. This is a fun raiser from the United States to Africa. The song features such artist as Dan Aykroyd, Harry Belafonte, Lindsey Buchingham, Kim Carnes, Ray Charles, Bob Dylan, Sheila E., Bob Geldof, Hall & Oates, James Ingram, Jackie Jackson, LaToya Jackson, Marlon Jackson, Michael Jackson, Randy Jackson,

. . . AND EVEN . . .

The 1984 presidential election was an exciting and interesting race.

Walter Mondale, the democratic candidate, challenged president Ronald Reagan, the republican choice for a second term.

Mondale's running mate, Geraldine Ferraro, was the first woman to ever run on a major party ticket. Reagan's running mate was George Bush.

While Mondale was changing tradition Reagan tried to preserve it. Reagan boarded a train to complete his campaign. Reagan followed the same path that Franklin D. Roosevelt used in the whistle Stop Campaign.

Election '84' was November 6. A suspence filled day for Reagan and Mondale.

Reagan was in front during the race, but early in the evening Mondale still had a chance.

Reagan won with 525 electoral votes. Reagan won every voting territory except District of Columbia and Minnesota. Reagan won by a landslide.

Tito Jackson, Al Jarreau, Waylon Jennings, Billy Joel, Cyndi Lauper, Huey Lewis & the News, Kenny Loggins, Bette Midler, Willie Nelson, Jeffery Osburne, Steve Perry, The Pointer Sisters, Lionel Richie, Smokey Robinson, Kenny Rogers, Diana Ross, Paul Simon, Bruce Springsteen, Tina Turner, Dionne Warwick, Stevie Wonder,

If you still believe in me, save me" is a famous phrase heard across the country.

This belongs to the statue of Liberty. She is the most powerful symbol of freedom that the U.S. has.

The statue of Liberty is deteriorating from weather and salt air.

It will take 230 million to restore the iron frame work and the holes in the copper exterior.

Americans are raising the money.

. . . THE WORLD NEWS.

On October 14, 1984, the world's first recipient of an animal heart transplant was born.

Stephanie Fae, Known as baby Fae was born three weeks early. Her premature birth resulted in an underdeveloped heart.

After her birth, baby Fae was sent to the Loma Linda Medical Center. The doctors there told bab Fae's parents that she had only a few days to live.

Shortly after arriving home, baby Fae's parents received a call. The doctors said that there was a chance to save baby Fae.

Dr. Leonard Baily said that a heart transplant was neceasary and that the only donor available was a baby baboon.

Dr, Bailey performed the operation on October 26. The heart of the seven-month-old baby Fae. After two weeks of steady progress, baby Fae showed signs of rejection.

The increase of artirefection drugs caused baby Fae to develop kidney problems. She died at 9 pm Thursday November 15, 1984, of kidney failure.

In 1984 Vanessa Williams had to return the Miss American crown.

Williams was the first black woman to hold the Miss America tittle.

Regardless of race creed, sex, mental or emotional condition, Williams posed in the nude which is a disgrace to the pageant name.

"Penthouse" magazine published these photos of Williams during the months of what was to be her reign.

This years movies relates with music. There were several hot movies that favorite songs developed.

One of these' movies was "Ghostbusters". This movie features Bill Murray, Harold Ramis, Dan Aykroyd.

All through the movie these three guys try tracking ghost. A memorable scene was with the giant marshmallow man. After the movie release, a sound track was released. The featured hit song and movie title "Ghostbusters" was sung by Ray Parker, JR.

Another favorite movie was "Purple Rain" which was about a man's singing career. "Purple Rain" featured Prince.

"Beverly Hills Cop" was another favorite starring Eddie Murphy. Murphy plays a New York cop who goes to California to find the people who murdered his friend. The movie "Against All Odds" featured Jeff Bridges as an ex-football player.

Other favorite top movies were "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom," "2010 A Year to Make Contact," "A soldier's Story," "Bachlor Party," "A Woman in Red," "Under the Volcano."

Scandal, featuring Patty Smyth, rocked Mansfield University on Saturday September 29, 1984 in Decker Gymnasium. Playing to an estimated 3000 people, the largest crowed at an MU concert in nearly eight years. Smyth sang various cuts from Scandal's top-selling album, The Warrior. Songs included "Tonight", "Hands Tied", "The Warrior" and "Good Bye to You".

The Scandel concert was sponsored by the Mansfield Activities Council and the Student Activities Fees.

B.W.

Recently a member of the class of 1985 visited my office.

As our conversation came to a close, the student reminded me that four years had passed since she and her parents had made their intital visit to Mansfield.

She was a high school senior, who was choosing a college, and that visit helped her to select Mansfield.

Although we did not discuss the subject, it was obvious that the student enjoyed Mansfield. She was looking forward to graduation time, but her college/university experiences had been positive.

During the 21 years I have been at Mansfield, many students have shared their opinions with me. The large majority of those students have said good things about our University. The highest praise is for our people; our faculty members, our staff, and our students. Frequently I ask people, what is special about Mansfield. Again, the overwhelming response is, its people!

As a member of the class of '85, you are one of the special people. We thank you for your contributions to Mansfield. We hope that we have helped you to prepare for the next phase of your life. We also hope you will continue a positive relationship with your University.

Sincerely,

MKelchner

Colors: Blue is our color, as it is also the color of the sky. We plan to move forward and look upward - the sky is our limit.

Motto: It is not your environment, it is you - the quality of your minds, the integrity of your souls, and the determination of your wills - that will decide your future and shape your lives.

We chose this quotation because most of us are not from or use to an environment such as the one here at Mansfield. We believe that the environment alone should not hinder our growth or percetions, but help to enhance our minds and develop our souls.

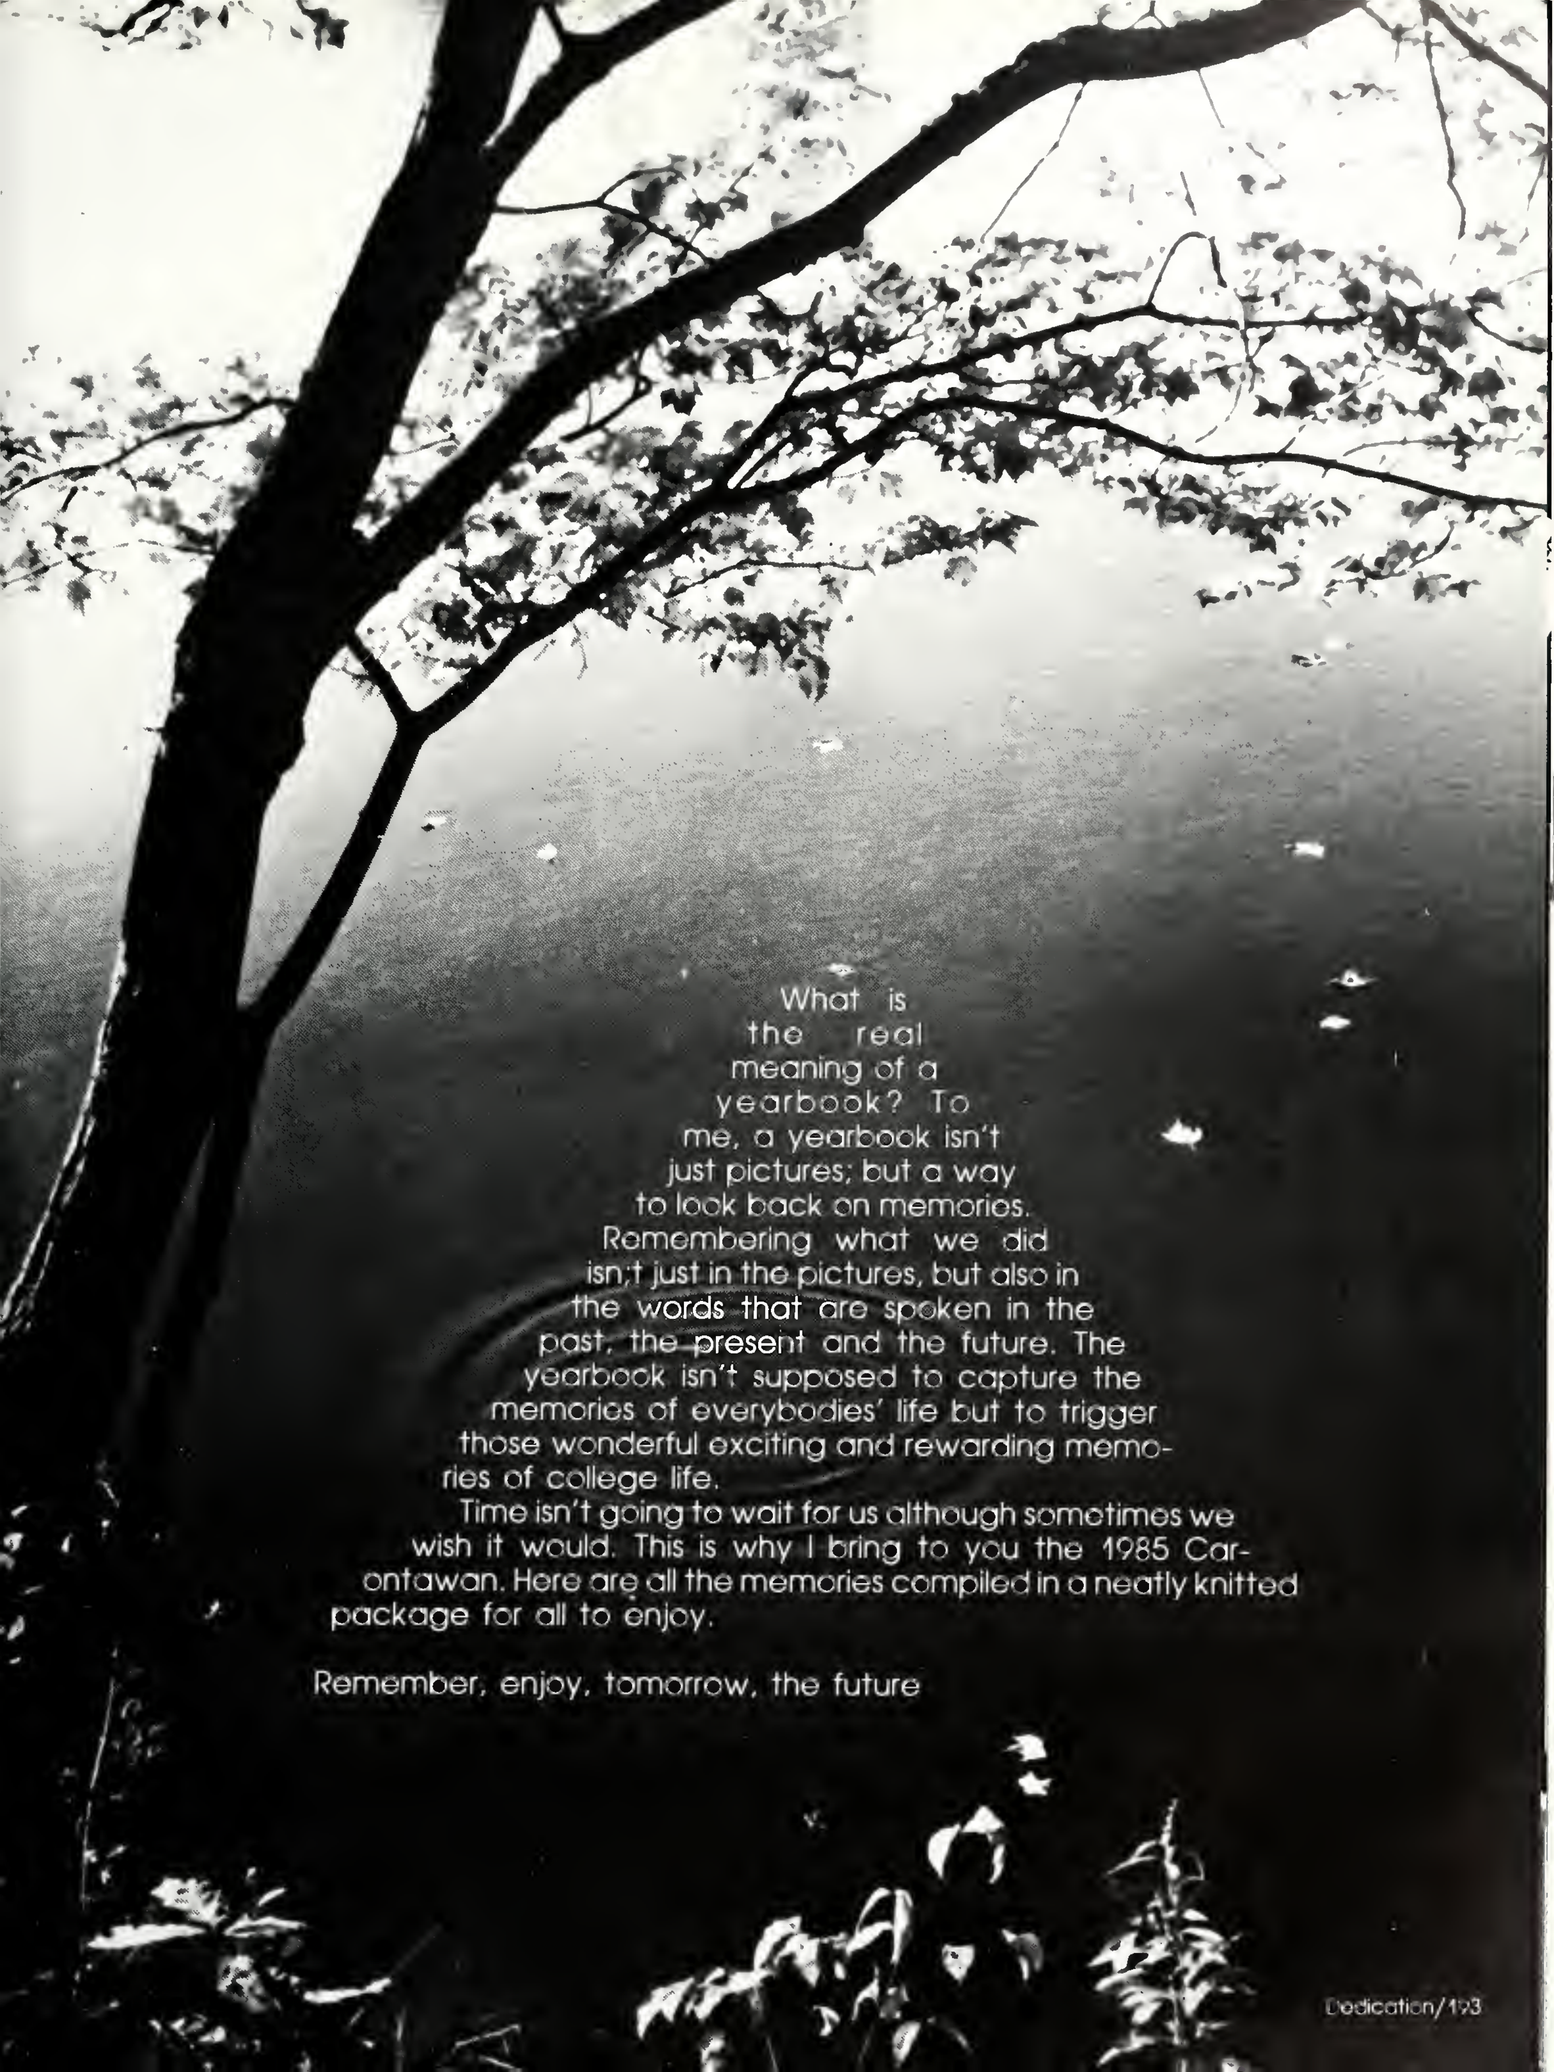
As editor in chief, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the following people for all their help this past year. Without their help this edition of the Carontawan would not be. Thank you Larry McCullen, Jostons yearbook representative, and Jim Revell, Varden's Studios. Also at this moment, I would like to thank all those who volunteered their services.



What is the real meaning of a yearbook? To me, a yearbook isn't just pictures; but a way to look back on memories. Remembering what we did isn;t just in the pictures, but also in the words that are spoken in the past, the present and the future. The yearbook isn't supposed to capture the memories of everybodies' life but to trigger those wonderful exciting and rewarding memories of college life.

Time isn't going to wait for us although sometimes we wish it would. This is why I bring to you the 1985 Carontawan. Here are all the memories compiled in a neatly knitted package for all to enjoy.

Remember, enjoy, tomorrow, the future

Days rise and fall
silently screaming for tomorrow -
Watch us count them all gazing backward out of a future.
Years faintly slip away wondering where yesterday is - Nothing is here to stay old memory that never was.
Lifetimes come and go without the thought of a day -
What do heroes know
second only in the present.
Departure will be now minutes ponder more than dreamed of
As perpetuation matters for tomorrows will not be.

The books are closing,

The year is ending,

And so the book comes to an end.

But the life ahead of us is only beginning.
